

BARBARA BATES SEDORIC - BIOGRAPHY

Barbara Bates Sedoric is President and Founder of LastingMatters (www.LastingMatters.com) and is a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Connecticut College. Barbara is Author of The LastingMatters Organizer, a comprehensive guide to documenting life's most important information. The LastingMatters Organizer is listed on NHPR's "must read book" for 2014 and her story is featured on The Conversation Project's website. In addition, Barbara is honored to be featured on Maria Shriver's website as an "Architect of Change". Barbara is an Expert on www.aplaceformom.com for Eldercare and Finance.

Barbara gained her comprehensive and sensitive understanding of the importance of life directives during her 7 year career as an Estates and Trusts Paralegal at the Boston law firm of Foley, Hoag & Eliot where she helped grieving family members compile information. Her mother's sudden death was the inspiration behind LastingMatters. Barbara comes from three generations of wealth managers and her husband Thomas is Managing Director of The Sedoric Group, and she lives with her family in Rye, New Hampshire.
